Preface.

The Lord's Prayer.

E. S. Lorenz.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name; Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our dai-ly bread; And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but de-liv-er us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glo - ry, for-

Hymns of Faith and Praise.

No. 1. Crown Him with many Crowns.

MATHEW BRIDGES. Sir GEORGE J. ELVEY.

1. Crown Him with ma - ny crowns, The Lamb up - on His throne;
2. Crown Him the Lord of love, Be - hold His hands and side,
3. Crown Him the Lord of peace; Whose pow'r a scep - tre sways
4. Crown Him the Lord of years, The Po - ten - tate of time;
Hark, how the heav'nly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own!
Rich wounds, yet vis - i - ble a - bove, In beau - ty glo - ri - fied.
From pole to pole, that wars may cease, Absorbed in pray'r and praise.
Cre - a - tor of all roll - ing spheres, In - ef - fa - bly sub - lime:
A - wake, my soul, and sing Of Him who died for thee,
No an - gel in the sky Can ful - ly bear that sight,
His reign shall know no end; And round His pierc - ed feet
All hail, Re - deem - er, hail! For Thou hast died for me:
And hail Him as thy matchless King Thro' all e - ter - ni - ty.
But down-ward bends his burn-ing eye At mys-ter - ies so bright.
Fair flow'rs of par - a - dise ex - tend Their fragrance ev-er sweet.
Thy praise shall nev - er, nev - er fail Throughout e - ter-ni - ty.

No. 8. The Spirit's Last Call.

E. E. Hewitt. D. B. Towner.

1. There's a heav'nly voice that whispers To your in-most soul to-day:
2. Is your heart a-thirst, a-hun-gered? Come! a roy-al feast is spread;
3. Leave the earth-ly cares that bind you; Cast a-side the hind'ring weight;
4. En-ter now the Mas-ter's vineyard, Ere the shades of evening fall;
"Wand'ring child, O seek the Fa-ther; Je-sus is the Life, the Way."
Free-ly take the liv-ing wa-ter, Feed up-on the bro-ken Bread.
Quick-ly rise and fol-low Je-sus, Trust Him, ere it be too late.
An-swer, in the grace He gives you, An-swer now the Spir-it's call.

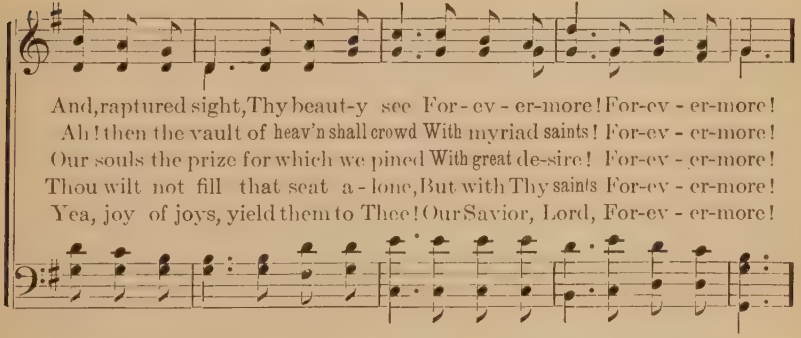
5. A moment more–Ah! can it be– One moment bring such joy to me?



And, raptured sight, Thy beaut-y see For - ev - er-more! For-ev - er-more!
Ah! then the vault of heav'n shall crowd With myriad saints! For-ev - er-more!
Our souls the prize for which we pined With great de-sire! For-ev - er-more!
Thou wilt not fill that seat a - lone, But with Thy saints For-ev - er-more!
Yea, joy of joys, yield them to Thee! Our Savior, Lord, For-ev - er-more!

Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all their guilty stains, Lose all their guilty stains.
Lose all their guilty stains.

2 The dying thief rejoiced to see
That fountain in his day;
And there may I, though vile as he,
Wash all my sins away.

3 Dear dying Lamb! Thy precious [blood
Shall never lose its power,
Till all the ransomed Church of God
Are saved to sin no more.

4 E'er since by faith I saw the stream
Thy flowing wounds supply,
Redeeming love has been my theme,
And shall be till I die.

5 Then in a nobler, sweeter song [tongue
I'll sing Thy power to save,
When this poor lisping, stammering
Lies silent in the grave.

2. I've found a Friend; oh, such a Friend! He bled, He died to save me;
3. I've found a Friend; oh, such a Friend! All power to Him is giv - en;
4. I've found a Friend; oh, such a Friend! So kind, and true, and ten-der,
He drew me with the cords of love, And thus He bound me to Him.
And not a-lone the gift of life, But His own self He gave me.
To guard me on my on-ward course, And bring me safe to Heav-en.
So wise a Coun - sel - or and Guide, So might - y a De - fend-er!
And 'round my heart still closely twine Those ties which naught can sever,
Naught that I have my own I call, I hold it for the Giv - er.
Th' e - ter - nal glo - ries gleam a - far, To nerve my faint en-deav-or;
From Him, who loves me now so well, What power my soul can sev-er?
For I am His, and He is mine, For - ev - er and for - ev - er.
My heart, my strength, my life, my all, Are His, and His for - ev - er.

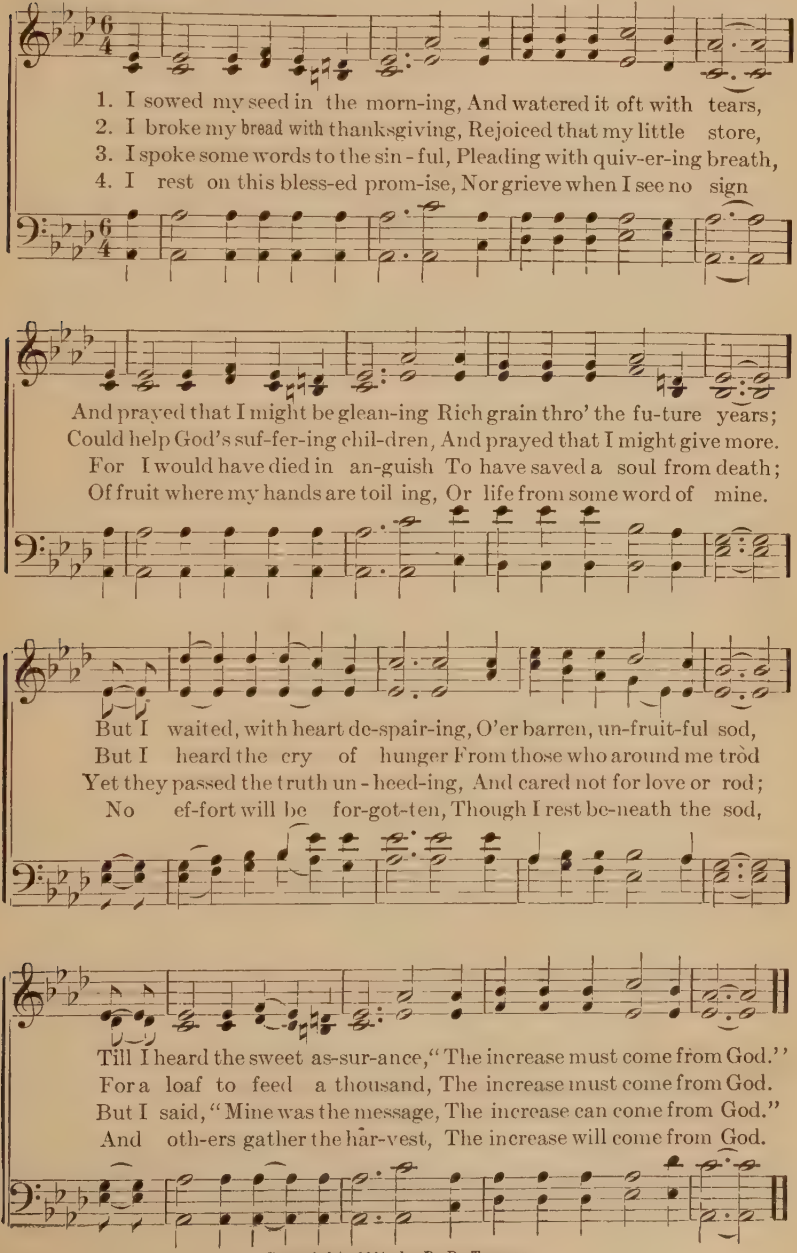
No. 133. God Gives the Increase.

MYRA GOODWIN PLANTZ. Rev. S. W. SPENCER.



1. I sowed my seed in the morn-ing, And watered it oft with tears,
2. I broke my bread with thanksgiving, Rejoiced that my little store,
3. I spoke some words to the sin - ful, Pleading with quiv-er-ing breath,
4. I rest on this bless-ed prom-ise, Nor grieve when I see no sign
And prayed that I might be glean-ing Rich grain thro' the fu-ture years;
Could help God's suf-fer-ing chil-dren, And prayed that I might give more.
For I would have died in an-guish To have saved a soul from death;
Of fruit where my hands are toil ing, Or life from some word of mine.
But I waited, with heart de-spair-ing, O'er barren, un-fruit-ful sod,
But I heard the cry of hunger From those who around me trod
Yet they passed the truth un - heed-ing, And cared not for love or rod;
No ef-fort will be for-got-ten, Though I rest be-neath the sod,
Till I heard the sweet as-sur-ance, "The increase must come from God."
For a loaf to feed a thousand, The increase must come from God.
But I said, "Mine was the message, The increase can come from God."
And oth-ers gather the har-vest, The increase will come from God.

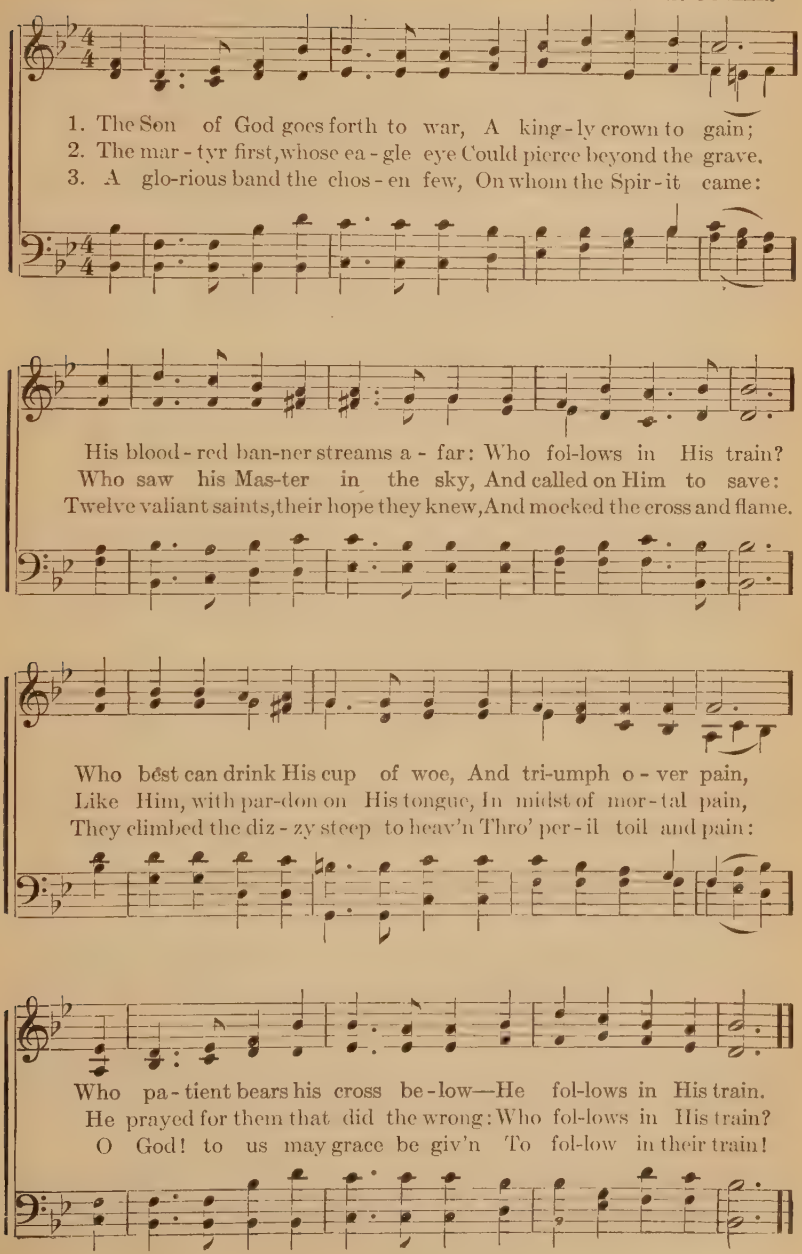
REGINALD HEBER. HENRY S. CUTLER.



1. The Son of God goes forth to war, A king-ly crown to gain;
2. The mar-tyr first, whose ea-gle eye Could pierce beyond the grave.
3. A glo-rious band the chos-en few, On whom the Spir-it came:
His blood-red ban-ner streams a-far: Who fol-lows in His train?
Who saw his Mas-ter in the sky, And called on Him to save:
Twelve valiant saints, their hope they knew, And mocked the cross and flame.
Who best can drink His cup of woe, And tri-umph o-ver pain,
Like Him, with par-don on His tongue, In midst of mor-tal pain,
They climbed the diz-zy steep to heav'n Thro' per-il toil and pain:
Who pa-tient bears his cross be-low—He fol-lows in His train.
He prayed for them that did the wrong: Who fol-lows in His train?
O God! to us may grace be giv'n To fol-low in their train!

No. 198. Tune—Italian Hymn No. 199.

1 Sound, sound the truth abroad,
Bear ye the word of God
Through the wide world:
Tell what our Lord has done,
Tell how the day is won,
And from His lofty throne
Satan is hurled.

2 Speed on the wings of love,
Jesus, who reigns above,
Bids us to fly;
They who His message bear
Should neither doubt nor fear
He will their Friend appear,
He will be nigh.

3 Ye who, forsaking all
At your loved Master's call,
Comforts resign;
Soon will your work be done;
Soon will the prize be won;
Brighter than yonder sun
Then shall ye shine.

1 How gentle God's commands,
How kind his precepts are;
Come, cast your burdens on the Lord,
And trust his constant care.

2 Beneath his watchful eye
His saints securely dwell;
That hand which bears creation up
Shall guard his children well.

3 His goodness stands approved,
Unchanged from day to day;
I'll drop my burden at his feet,
And bear a song away.

No. 208.

1 Did Christ o'er sinners weep,
And shall our cheeks be dry?
Let floods of penitential grief
Burst forth from every eye.

2 The Son of God in tears
The wondering angels see;
Be thou astonished, oh, my soul,
He shed those tears for thee.

3 He wept that we might weep;
Each sin demands a tear;
In heaven alone no sin is found,
And there's no weeping there.

1. Stand up! stand up for Jesus! Ye soldiers of the cross; Lift high his royal banner;
D. S. Till ev-'ry foe is vanquished,
Fine.
D. S.
It must not suf-fer loss; From vict'ry unto vict'ry His arm-y shall he lead,
And Christ is Lord indeed.

2 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
The trumpet call obey;
Forth to the mighty conflict,
In this his glorious day:
"Ye that are men, now serve him,"
Against unnumbered foes;
Let courage rise with danger,
And strength to strength oppose.

3 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
Stand in his strength alone;
The arm of flesh will fail you;
Ye dare not trust your own:
Put on the gospel armor,
And, watching unto prayer,
Where duty calls, or danger,
Be never wanting there.

4 Stand up! stand up for Jesus!
The strife will not be long;
This day, the noise of battle,
The next, the victor's song:
To him that overcometh,
A crown of life shall be;
He with the King of glory
Shall reign eternally!

No. 214.

1 The morning light is breaking;
The darkness disappears!
The sons of earth are waking
To penitential tears;
Each breeze that sweeps the ocean
Brings tidings from afar,
Of nations in commotion,
Prepared for Zion's war.

2 See heathen nations bending
Before the God we love,
And thousand hearts ascending
In gratitude above;
While sinners, now confessing,
The gospel call obey,
And seek the Saviour's blessing—
A nation in a day.

3 Blest river of salvation!
Pursue thine onward way;
Flow thou to every nation,
Nor in thy richness stay:
Stay not till all the lowly
Triumphant reach their home:
Stay not till all the holy
Proclaim—"The Lord is come!"

No. 215.

1 Sometimes a light surprises
The Christian while he sings;
It is the Lord who rises
With healing in his wings:
When comforts are declining,
He grants the soul again
A season of clear shining,
To cheer it after rain.

2 In holy contemplation,
We sweetly then pursue
The theme of God's salvation,
And find it ever new;
Set free from present sorrow,
We cheerfully can say,
Let the unknown to-morrow
Bring with it what it may.

3 It can bring with it nothing
But he will bring us through;
Who gives the lilies clothing,
Will clothe his people too;
Beneath the spreading heavens,
No creature but is fed;
And he who feeds the ravens,
Will give his children bread.

4 Though vine nor fig-tree neither,
Their wonted fruit should bear,
Though all the fields should wither,
Nor flocks nor herds be there;
Yet God the same abiding,
His praise shall tune my voice,
For while in him confiding,
I can not but rejoice,

1 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers,
Kindle a flame of sacred love
In these cold hearts of ours.

2 Look! how we grovel here below,
Fond of these trifling toys;
Our souls can neither fly nor go
To reach eternal joys.

3 In vain we tune our formal songs;
In vain we strive to rise;
Hosannas languish on our tongues,
And our devotion dies.

4 Dear Lord, and shall we ever live
At this poor, dying rate—
Our love so faint, so cold to thee,
And thine to us so great?

5 Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove,
With all thy quickening powers;
Come, shed abroad a Saviour's love,
And that shall kindle ours.

No. 223. Zion.

1. On the mountain's top appearing, Lo! the sacred herald stands;
Welcome news to Zi-on bearing, Zi - on long in hos-tile lands. Mourning captive! God Himself will loose thy bands, Mourning captive, God Himself will loose thy bands.

2 Has thy night been long and mournful?
Have thy friends unfaithful proved?
Have thy foes been proud and scornful,
By thy sighs and tears unmoved?
Cease thy mourning:
Zion still is well-beloved.

3 God, thy God, will now restore thee:
He himself appears thy Friend;
All thy foes shall flee before thee;
Here their boasts and triumphs end.
Great deliverance
Zion's King will surely end.

4 Peace and joy shall now attend thee;
All thy warfare now be past;
God, thy Savior, will defend thee;
Victory is thine at last.
All thy conflicts
End in everlasting rest.

1 O'er the gloomy hills of darkness,
Cheered by no celestial ray,
Sun of righteousness arising,
Bring the bright, the glorious day.
Send the gospel
To the earth's remotest bound.

2 Kingdom's wide that sit in darkness,
Grant them, Lord, the glorious light;
And from eastern coast to western
May the morning chase the night.
And redemption
Freely purchased win the day.

3 Fly abroad, thou mighty gospel!
Win and conquer, never cease,
May thy lasting, wide dominion
Multiply and still increase.
Sway thy sceptre,
Savior, all the world around.
